

Second Chance

One of the places I love is my classroom. In this class, I have met so many great people. People who have taught me the meaning of friendship. I was in a bad state when I came into this program. My grades were the worst they could be but this place handed me a second chance and making me realize a lot.

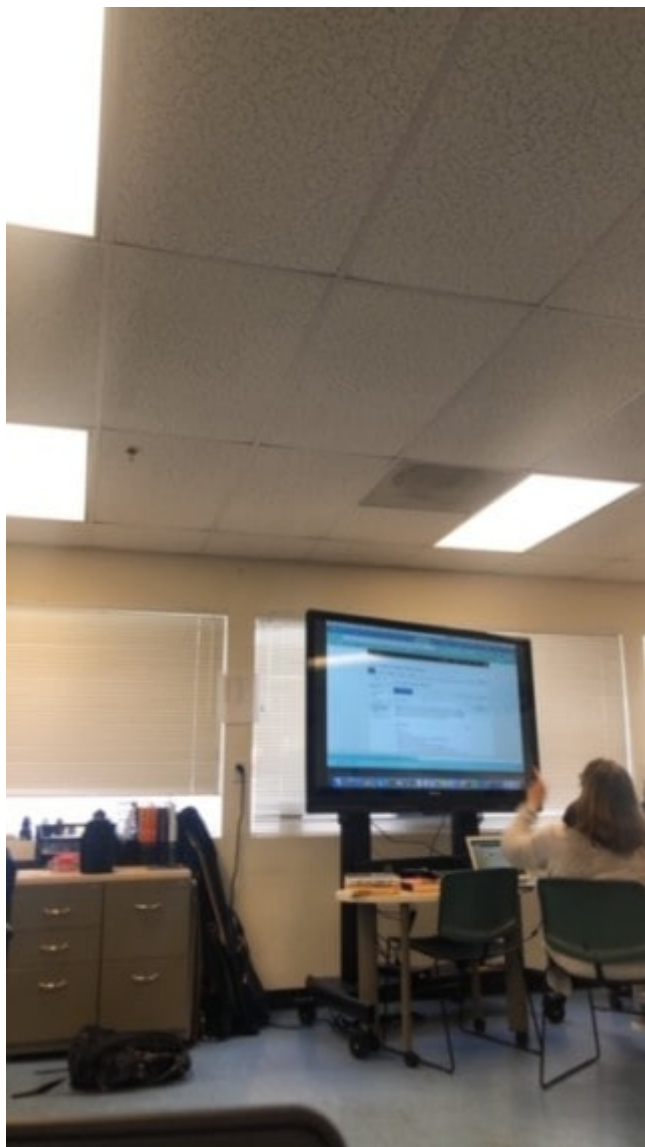

•

•